DPCC/CMC-IV/Policy/ 1536 Ju 42

Dated : 22/9/16

OFFICE ORDER

The Competent Authority has decided that in cases where any unit has applied for Consent to Establish(CTE)/Consent to Operate(CTO)/Authorizations/Registration during the intervening period i.e. time gap between the issue of closure directions and its implementation, the application for CTE/CTO/Authorizations/Registration, may be considered like any other unit and if CTE/CTO, is granted by the concerned committee i.e. Committee headed by Chairman, DPCC for category II(a) cases, Committee headed by Member Secretary for category II(a) cases and concerned Cell Incharges/Senior Environmental Engineers for category I cases, the closure directions deemed to be revoked.

The subsequent actions including temporary and permanent revocation of closure directions in case of the units according to their activity/category shall be taken by the concerned Committee/Cell Incharge / Senior Environmental Engineer.

This is being issued as per the approval of Competent Authority.
